

THE LIVING CHRIST: A Poem

Joseph Thorin

30 April 2017

- 1 His life surpassed all—His atoned;
By Sacrifice our souls are owned;
3 Mid mortals—as He too was tried—
None other’s strength mankind shall bide.
- 5 Moses wrote: Immortal power,
John composed: His mortal hour;
7 In testament old: Jehovah;
In testament new: Messiah.
- 9 He went and did good, as The Light—
Opened minds and Healed broken sight—
11 But the proud could not distinguish,
Darkness sought Him to extinguish.
- 13 He walked each road in Palestine,
That He the lost thereby might find,
15 Then on The Way toward Heav’n direct,
The sons of God from sin correct.
- 17 His death required He saw afar,
His Bread and Wine—a sure memoir;
19 The justices called Him “outlaw,”
Rejecting Him though without flaw.
- 21 A Gift to each life on the earth—
A gift—the Life who had no worth!
23 To all, through grace, Life Immortal;
To some, by works, Life Eternal.
- 25 He first loved us, and so atoned—
He came, saw, wept, and for us groaned—
27 Who formed the ground where Bethle’m stood,
And rent the earth ‘neath Calvary’s wood.
- 29 Perfect Son, Only Begotten;
Father’s will not once forgotten,
31 Whose will decreed: “Clothe Him in flesh;
“Redeem all man, Author afresh.”
- 33 His work did not end at death’s jeer;
To Mary first He did appear;
35 Then with Eleven, He broke bread,
Saying, “Fear not; for you I bled.”
- 37 Other sheep did see His glory,
Charging them to write His story.
39 Translated through boundless Grace,
By he who saw Christ face to face:
- 41 Who said, “His eyes are as a fire;
“Like snow, His hair and white attire;
43 “His Countenance above the Sun;
“Voice as water—beloved Son.
- 45 “By Him, and through Him, and of Him,
“Worlds to God ascribe patronym;”
47 We too, then, with thanks to God’s Word,
Have mem’ry Eternal bestirred.
- 49 “He lives! He lives!” The prophet said,
“He lives, our Savior though once dead!”
51 No greater message could He give—
We—with Heav’nly Parents—may live.
- 53 His priesthood and His church again,
Are found among the race of men;
55 Built upon a sure foundation,
Of Christ, Apostles, a holy nation.
- 57 This woman He deigned through labor,
To bear His Zion of favor;
59 That when He comes to earth—to His—
Some shall be like Him, as He is.
- 61 He then will rule, as king of kings;
Every knee bows, every tongue sings;
63 He’ll hold in hand the Book of Life,
Judgement’s Word, a double-edged knife.
- 65 Awaiting His day here I write—
Denying wrong, defending Right—
67 That His way is strait and narrow;
No unclean bone shall hold marrow.
- 69 Hence enter by the gate, He asks,
Feast on His word—fulfill His tasks;
71 And as the Light of the whole world—
His mercy comes in wings unfurled.
- 73 I, His leastwise disciple, say,
That His life is the only way;
75 I have tried His works to the end,
A faithful prize: called by Him “friend.”
- 77 His life surpassed all—His atoned;
By sacrifice my soul is owned;
79 Mid mortals—as He too was tried—
None other’s strength my life shall bide.
